Keynote Speaker

Tim Neubauer is the founder of “Rethinklife Canada”, a consulting organization which focuses on crisis management, disaster recovery and community resilience. He has spent over 25 years in the social profit sector working in the areas of community development, chaplaincy, and social work. Passionate about individual wellness and creating healthy workplace cultures, Tim finds great fulfillment in providing wellness coaching to organizations and community groups.

He travels throughout Canada teaching psycho-social capacity building workshops on Compassion Fatigue, Psychological First Aid and Disaster Recovery. Tim is a certified Psychological Health and Safety Advisor with the Canadian Mental Health Association and a member of the International Association of Trauma Workers. He currently resides in Calgary, Alberta and hopes to one day find his way back to the West Coast to practice good self-care near the ocean.

Come and see what Edmonton has to offer!
