

Suffering & Spirituality

Clinical Practices that Promote Healing

JUNE 30, 2023, FROM 8:00 AM TO 4:30 PM

LE NOUVEL HOTEL, MONTREAL

Lorraine M. Wright, RN, PhD

Dr. Wright is an international lecturer, author, clinician, and member of the Order of Canada. Her research and clinical work focus on illness, suffering, beliefs, healing, and spirituality. She is a Professor Emeritus of Nursing at the University of Calgary and has been awarded Honorary Doctorates by the University of Montreal, Canada, in 2008 and Linnaeus University, Sweden, in 2012.

Workshop: nurses and healthcare professionals

The attendees will learn about the interconnections between suffering and spirituality, and how an understanding of the Trinity Practice Model and therapeutic conversations can soften suffering. The workshop is in-person and on Zoom. Breakfast, lunch, and snacks will be provided.

Registration and Cost

Cost: $100-$195. See registration details.

REGISTER ONLINE AT:

<https://ncfcanada.ca/product-category/conferences/>

1 (514) 602- 2654

For registration or lodging
information email:
RNFRONICA@GMAIL.COM

Venue: Le Nouvel Hotel
1740 René-Lévesque Blvd W,
Montreal Quebec H3H 1R3